Desert Biome
Location Of The Desert Biome
Location:

Southwest U.S., S. America, Africa and S. Asia
Most Significant Producer-
Barrel Cactus
Producer 1 - Senita cactus
Producer 3 - Saguaro cactus
Producer 4 - Creosote bush
Consumer Herbivore-
White-tailed Ground Squirrel
Consumer Herbivore-
Desert tortoise
Consumer Carnivore-
American badger
Consumer Carnivore - Bobcat
Consumer Carnivore-
Armadillo Lizard
Consumer
Carnivore-
Rattlesnake
Desert food chain

Cacti->Ground Squirrel->Mojave Rattlesnake->Red Tailed Hawk
Desert climate-Hot and Dry
Desert seasons

Distinctly 4 season (winter spring summer fall), but overall warm temperatures.
Yearly rainfall - Less than 25 cm a year
Temperature average is 20-30°C
A disturbance to this biome is

Pollution

Grazing livestock

Land Clearing
And effects these Organisms desert tortoise, ground squirrel, lizard and badger.
By doing this…

Destroys vegetation and animals habitat.
Vocab:
Desert
Ecology
Herbivore
Carnivore
Disturbance
Autotroph
Heterotroph