Hanover Elementary
4:30 PM

Present: Bob Sansevere, Keg Ogden, Sue Lee, Melissa Brings, Amanda Reineck
Absent: Dave Wilson, Laurie Raymond

1. Hanover Elementary Presentation, Brad Koltes, Principal
Met site reading goal and also surpassed their math goal. Working on building better relationships with parents and fellow staff members. PLC teams are a key to the success in Hanover. Staff consistency is also key. Staff will be working on integrating AVID strategies. Providing various presentations on mental health to staff. Dive In to Kindergarten will again be provided this summer to help balance classrooms. Focus in October about being nice and kind included sidewalk chalk messages to students from parents.
2. MDE Center of Excellence Grant - Pyramid Model, Kim Carlson, Director of Community Education and Amy Ernst, Director of Special Education
Will be great to provide the same language and behavior expectations from early childhood to pre-school to KidKare. Nationally, even pre-school students are expelled for bad behavior. Parent nights are included in the program providing support and solutions to curb bad behavior. Taking steps to ensure the sustainability of this program when the grant runs out.
3. 2019 Summer Programs, Kim Carlson, Director of Community Education
Targeted Services enrollment is increasing. Have received 542 referrals for this summer's programming. Targeted Services and all Buffalo KidKare Programs will be held at Northwinds Elementary this year. Will continue the ECFE Tuesdays in the park and swim lessons at the BCMS pool and Pulaski beach. Various camps are being offered for tennis, football, basketball, volleyball and gymnastics and enrichment classes will include a Virtual Reality Experience and Kids Chef Camp. Applying to have Northwinds Elementary included as an approved site for the USDA Summer Food Program.
4. SPED Extended School Year 2019, Amy Ernst, Director of Special Education
Services are provided to eligible students who currently receive special education services. Program will be held at BCMS this year. 115 K-21 aged students are eligible along with 44 3-5 year olds.
